

Alamo Placita Neighbors Association By-Laws

Article I. Name

The organization is: Alamo Placita Neighbors Association, also known as APNA.

Article II. Geographic Boundaries

The geographic boundaries of the APNA neighborhood are defined as: beginning at the intersection of the northbound side of Speer Boulevard and Sixth Avenue, continuing east on Sixth Avenue to Pearl Street, continuing north on Pearl Street to Seventh Avenue, continuing east on Seventh Avenue to the alley between Downing and Marion Streets, continuing south on that alley to Speer Boulevard, and then northwest along the northbound side of Speer Boulevard to Sixth Avenue.

Article III. Purpose

The purpose of Alamo Placita Neighbors Association, as reflected in its Mission Statement adopted February 6, 1991, is to preserve and enhance the quality of life in our neighborhood by:

- seeking to enhance the historic and architectural legacy and predominantly residential character of our neighborhood through efforts to assure that new residential or commercial development and city improvements are compatible with the existing fabric of the area;
- participating in planning, zoning, safety, and other decisions and issues affecting our neighborhood through advocacy before government agencies and elected representatives and liaison with other community organizations; and
- fostering a sense of community identity, spirit, and activism through effective communication with and interaction among our neighbors.

Article IV. Organization

Section 1. Registered Neighborhood Organization

APNA was founded in 1984 as an unincorporated association and is presently organized and adheres to the requirements for a Registered Neighborhood Organization under Section 12-93(a) of the Denver Revised Municipal Code (as the same may be amended from time to time). APNA shall at all times comply with the requirements of the Denver Revised Municipal Code relating to Registered Neighborhood Organizations.

Section 2. Non-Profit Status

APNA is a non-profit organization exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). APNA is a public charity per IRC Section 509(a)(2). APNA shall at all times comply with all applicable requirements for 501(c)(3) organizations.

Section 3. Membership

Membership shall be open to all:

- persons who live within APNA's geographic boundaries;
- persons who own real property within APNA's geographic boundaries;
- businesses located within APNA's geographic boundaries; or
- businesses located just outside of APNA's geographic boundaries, within ¼ mile, in accordance with Section 12-93(a)(5) of the Denver Revised Municipal Code. Members shall be solicited for suggested dues to fund the activities of APNA. Dues are voluntary and are not a condition of membership. Suggested dues shall be $20 per year.

Section 4. Board of Directors

APNA shall be governed by a Board of Directors (“Board”) elected annually by the APNA membership at a General Meeting. The Board shall be comprised of no more than fifteen (15) members, who must be members of APNA. Vacancies on the Board may be filled by election of the Board, but any person so elected shall stand for election by the membership at the next annual General Meeting. The Board shall have all powers generally held by the board of directors of a non-profit corporation, as well as such powers as are necessary and proper to fulfill APNA’s responsibilities as a Registered Neighborhood Organization and APNA’s purposes under these By-Laws. Directors may be removed from the board by two (2) majority votes at consecutive Board meetings, or by a single unanimous minus one vote.

Section 5. Officers

The officers of APNA shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. The officers shall be elected by the Board from those persons who have been elected to serve on the Board and shall serve for one-year terms. No officer shall be a member of the same household as any other officer. Vacancies may be filled in the manner specified in Article IV., Section 4 above.

(1) President

The President’s duties shall include the following:

- Presiding at all General Meetings and Board meetings;
- Compiling and Distributing meeting agendas;
- Acting as the chief executive officer of the organization, subject to the direction and supervision of the Board;
- Acting as the primary spokesperson and representative of the RNO before the City of Denver, other government bodies, and community organizations, unless the President or Board designates another representative;
- Ensuring that APNA’s policies and actions are in accordance with the By-Laws;
- Completing all necessary tasks for RNO registration with the City of Denver;
- Ensuring official records and correspondence are shared with the Board;
- Being an authorized signer on all bank accounts;
- Performing other duties assigned by the Board; and
- Delegating duties as needed.

(2) Vice President

The Vice President's duties shall include the following:

- Performing the duties of the President in the absence, resignation, or incapacity of the President;
- Seeking the practical means to execute the goals of the Board;
- Overseeing committees that do not have a chairperson;
- Assisting in the general operations and reports of committees;
- Assisting in the continuity of the Board and its institutional knowledge;
- Assisting in the continuity of officers' duties;
- Performing other duties assigned by the Board; and
- Delegating duties as needed.

(3) Secretary

The Secretary's duties shall include the following:

- Recording and distributing meeting minutes, including major topics of discussion, votes, and action items;
- Maintaining official documentation regarding APNA's incorporation and standing with local, state, and federal entities;
- Archiving important records, documents, and correspondence;
- Responding to requests for information or records on behalf of the Board;
- Filing reports with government agencies;
- Being an authorized signer on all bank accounts;
- Maintaining a list of current Board members;
- Facilitating electronic communication amongst Board members;
- Performing other duties assigned by the Board; and
- Delegating duties as needed.

(4) Treasurer

The Treasurer's duties shall include the following:

- Tracking all financial transactions that affect APNA's funds;
- Reporting all incomes, expenses, and an ending balance at each Board meeting;
- Being an authorized signer on all bank accounts;
- Assisting the Secretary with any government filings that involve financial information;
- Reviewing and paying all invoices received by APNA;

- Performing other duties assigned by the Board; and
- Delegating duties as needed.

(5) All Officers

All officers' duties shall include the following:

- Exhibiting professional behavior and demeanor;
- Disclosing any conflicts of interest;
- Ensuring that all Board members are able to participate;
- Sharing information with the Board; and
- Facilitating the transfer and continuity of duties and knowledge to incoming officers.

Section 6. Committees

The Board may both assemble and dissolve standing committees that are tasked with carrying out specific aspects of the Board's vision, recommending positions for APNA to take regarding city policies or plans, and carrying out research or documentation efforts for APNA. Except as otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, members of each committee shall be members of APNA. Each committee shall have a chairperson or chairpersons responsible for leading the committee, recruiting or removing committee members, and providing reports at meetings.

Initially, the following committees shall exist:

(1) Membership Committee

The Membership Committee shall be tasked with maintaining an updated list of APNA members, tracking membership payments, recruiting members, and seeking renewals.

(2) Communications Committee

The Communications Committee shall be tasked with writing newsletters, updating the website and any social media accounts, and any other efforts to communicate with the public.

(3) Events Committee

The Events Committee shall be tasked with leading the planning and coordination of APNA events. These events shall include, but not be limited to, General Meetings, happy hours, and neighborhood breakfasts.

Article V. Meetings

Section 1. Frequency and Notice

APNA shall hold at least one (1) General Meeting of the Membership annually, and may hold such additional General Meetings as the Board shall deem desirable. Additionally, the Board shall hold regularly scheduled Board meetings to conduct the affairs of APNA. All meetings shall be open to the public, take place within ¼ mile of APNA's boundaries, and be publicized in advance by newsletter, email, and/or flyers.

Section 2. Quorum

A quorum at any General Meeting of the Membership shall consist of twelve (12) members. A quorum of the Board shall consist of thirty-three percent (33%) of the members of the Board.

Section 3. Procedures

A General Meeting or Board meeting shall be held in accordance with generally recognized principles of parliamentary procedure, but these rules may be relaxed to encourage participation and open dialogue. Any disagreements as to appropriate procedure shall be resolved by reference to the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 4. Rules of Engagement

All meeting attendees are expected to sign their name on the attendance sheet. Meetings are public, so anything said at meetings is subject to being recorded in the minutes. Everyone at APNA meetings shall behave respectfully and courteously to others. The Board may ratify resolutions that further clarify and supplement these rules. A "Rules of Engagement" document should be made available to everyone wishing to participate in meetings, especially if the meeting pertains to any controversial issues.

Article VI. Dissolution

In the event of APNA's dissolution, the assets of the organization shall be apportioned to organizations classified as tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The assets shall not be distributed to any member of the organization, any officers, or any individual.

Adopted: December 2, 1997; amended November 12, 2025.
